We are pounding away on every side, and it is downed to be soon reduced. The rebels have to crisoned their forts and intrenchments with militia, and use their veterans to operate where required, their line running so that they can be massed with great rapidity. Testerday a demonstration was made along our lines, resulting in dri ing the rabels back to their intrenchments, gaining the rife-pits and capturing a pheset reserve of twenty-dree men.

The rebels cannot continue long is stients, if they continue botting against our works, they will soon wear themselves out, without doing us much hurt, and run the risk of losing their communications, upon which we are constantly operating. The number of their dead in front to 2000. The number of their dead in front to 2000. The number of their house of the loth Corps up to this hour, is 300, and the commanding officer reports that at least as many more are yet unburied. The number of bead buried in front of the loth Corps was 422. We have over 1,000 of their wounded in our hans, a the larger number of wounded being carried off during the night after the enagement by trem. We captured 18 stands of colors, and have them now, also captured 5,000 stand of arms. The strack was made on our lines seven times, and was seven times repulsed. Hood's and Hardee's corps, and Wheeler's cavairy on gaged us. We have sent for the rear 1,000 prisoners, including thirty-three commissioned officers of high rank. We still occupy the field, and the troops are in flue spirits.

A detailed and full report will be forwarded as soon as completed.

Morton, the Republican candidate, and Judge McDewald, Copperhead candidate for Governor of the State of Indiana, participated. There were about five thousand people present, and the discussion was marked by great enthusia. By far the great majority of the assemblage were Republicans, but there were a sprinkling of Copperheads, and they beard unpalatable truths from Governor Morton, if we may judge from the wry faces they made. The Governor's effort was a schedd one, and his words appeared to early conviction with them, to all who really desired to know the truth.

Judge McDomald is a pleasant, foreible speaker, and made the best of a bad cause. I'c confined his discussion mainly to State topics, and touched but lightly upon national issues. He did not hesitate to say that he was for Peace. He was decidedly opposed to currying on the war secording to the present policy of the Administration.

Some one asked him what he would do if the Southern States refused to come back into the Union—vould he then fight to bring them back? But no amount of questioning could force him to answer in the affirmative or suggest a remedy for present evils.

It did not escape our notice when the rebeilion commenced that while they claimed neutrality, it was that kind of neutrality which furn'shed all the sid and comfort to the enemy, which could be furnished short of actual war; and that the time of our trombies was those as a isvorable opportunity for treating with contempt our cherished Monroe decrine, by establishing European authority on the neighboring soil of Mexico. Our growing strupth and netlonal greatness have been snything but plessant in the eyes of the sristocracy of Europe, and when our tree institutions were placed on trial before the world, such men as Mr. Roebuck entertained the hope that we should be divided, then weakered, and then placed under creamstates where our policy could be divided, then weakered, and then placed under creamstates where our policy could be divided that by the crowned heads of the old world.

then weakered, and then placed under circumstances where our policy could be dictated by the crowned heads of the old world. The war in which we are engaged it felt to be that on which the interests of the civilized world depend. It is that is which the rights of humanity are waged against despotism. In such a contest the sympathics of despots would naturally be no the side of the slave-holding oligarety, for if the rights of humanity are now vindicated, there is hope for the oppressed everywhere.

The fact that France had once assisted us to establish a Republic, and that England had searchiced much his the cause of civil liberty, did not prevent them from treating the rebels as proper beligerents, nor from civing their pirate cruisers the character of national vessels of war.

Those nations do not shape their course by the abstract principles of rectifued. They are not expected to pursue any course which may be contrary to appeared interest, simply because it is wrong. If the balance of power makes if uppear necessary, any nation may be attacked, merely because its more prospersus than its neighbors. An excuse for it may easily be provided.

That France seriously proposes to apply the European system to the affairs of this continuent, is evident from the consolidation of her powers as the impedial head of the Latin race and church.

AMERICAN SECUTTES IN GERMANY.

Passe, Tutoday, July 19, 1864. AMERICAN SECUTIES IN GERMANY.

Passa, Tuesday, July 19, 1864.

During a few d ye 'run into Germany I had occasion the other day to go into the Bourse at Frankfort-on-the-Maine. What I saw there did nie good, and is worth talking about. Coming from Paris, where one hears none or Illute sympathy for the Union cause, where American stocks are not known, and where the Government journals trach the people that the American Government is on theverge of rain, it was like a sudden change from derkness into light to wind one's self in the midst of oasny handreds of bankers and brokers screaming themsives houses over-american stocks in a piace where more American stocks in a piace where more American stocks are bought and sold in one day there of all the European stocks combined, and where much an inferest, is felt in the battomal cause that the agency of the krisnygers in the Confederate loan is charged against that house as almost a crime! I did one good, too, to know that these Federal bonds were bought in most part by permanent holders and not by speculators—by people who pay little steenling to the finite of the Union, and find this the best investment for their surplus stocks.

Arrival of the English Detective in (From the N. Y. World, Aug. 11...)
All the details of the terrible marder lately All the details of the terrible marder lately committed on one of the metropolitan railways in London have been published in this paper. It has been stated now the crime was traced to a German samed Maller, who had shortly thereafter fled for this country in the packet ship Victoria. This vessel may arrive here at any moment, with the alleged homicted on board. Within a few days after her departure from England, inspector Turner, of the London detective squas, and several persons whose evidence goes to form the chain of t stimony against findler, set sail on board the steamship Gity of Manchester in pursuit. On Friesy evening the City of Manchester made port. Inspector Turner is now in New York, accompanied by Mr. Death, the jeweler with whom Maffer exchanged the chain of which he is supposed to have roboted the murdered man, and Jonathan Matthews, the cabrino whose summulation of the chain of the first clue they received, to put them an the assamin's track. The English detective has visited police headquarters. In Mulberry street, where Saperintendeal Kennedy and Inspector Carpenter extended to have a certiful professional reception. It is held that he would be well wante the peace men everywhere would not bim acceptable.

The New Jersey Copperheads are circulating a petition requesting Gov. A patriote song followed, by a glee club from South Pass.

Hon. Saml. Moniton closed in a fine, sharp, painted, logical speech, which was well received. I cannot pretend to give an outline. Among the things which produced a sonic, he said the Democrats were talking loadly about negre equality. He confessed that here was some danger in this. The negroes might mix with the Democrats, and to prevent this that he would be in favor of a law to punish every black woman who married a Democrat, with thirty-sine bashes.

with people as was the space cenerat, and the terrific fluid poured in among them. For a moment the whole congregation were paralized, but on coming to consciousness a secree occurred than ean be better imagined than described. The density of the smoke ied to the belief that the church was on fire. A rush was made for the doors and windows, and had it not been for the timely admonistions of the venerable pastor, who did not lose his presence of mind, the list of killed and hjured might have been numbered by hutdreds. As it was, the rush was great, the windows were broken and the doors forced off their hinges by the escapiur crowd.

When the terror and excitemest hat somewhat abated, the killed and injured were looked after. They were carried out into the rain, which soon revived those who had been knocked down and stansied. The following is a list of the killed: Mrs. Hartman, wife of Jacob Hartman, aged 25 years—loaves three children, the youngest six weeks old; Mrs. Ingler, wife of Phillip Ingler, aged 55 years; Nicholas Young, son of N. Young, 1ste Street Commissioner, aged 1b years; Matthias Engel, aged 17 years; Santhias Engel, aged 17 years; Santhias Engel, aged 18 years; Aboutt wenty persons were severely but not dangerously injured. Indeed the whole congregation was more or less affected.

We reached the spot soon after the occurence, and the secne was enough to pain the stoutest heart. The lamentations over the dead, the monay and cries of the injured, and their exclanations, of grattude and joy on finding them san, combining to render the occasion one long to be remembered.

The fineral of the killed took place from the church yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a was consourse of people.
